From Joe Healey via Erin Schrader

As..... I was wal-king down the road, I spied a co - zy neat a-bode with the had a basket placed on her knees, twas full of po - ta - toes I could see, and half door swin - ging o - pen wide, your wel - come an' drop in here.

ev - ry one of them care - ful - ly She peeled be - fore my eyes then. She

God save all here I kind - ly said, A sweet col leena popped out her head, God looked at me with a roug - ish smile, She said sit down and rest a while, Since save you kind- ly Sir she said, Come in and close the half door. She you came here to E - rin's isle, We nev - er close the half door.

She said play up the Shaskeen reel, and I will make you happy feel,
She turned right upon her heel, and lifted off the half door.
I'll play that tune with grace and style, with every note she winked and smiled.
Until she had my heart beguiled, with dancing on the half door.

She said now Sean, you'll have to stay, until I wet a cup of tea,
And then you'll be for on your way, and I'll hang up the half door.
She didn't have to ask me twice, Her crumbcake and tes were nice, and before I left I kissed her twice, as she leaned across the half door.
