

The Day We Went To Bankor

Chorus:

Did-n't we have a lo-ve-ly time the day we went to Ban-gor. A beau-ti-ful day we had lunch on the way and all for un-der a pound you know. Then on the way back I cud-dled with Jack and we o-pened a bottle of Ci-der.
Sing-ing a few of our fa-vor-ite songs as the wheels went round.

1. Do you recall the thrill of it all as we walked along the sea front.
Then on the sand, we heard a brass band that played De Diddle De Bum Ta Ra ra.
Elsie and me, had some cups of tea, then took a paddler boat out.
Splashing away as we toured round the bay as the wheels went round.
2. Wasn't it nice eating chocolate ice as we strolled around the funfair.
Then we ate Eels on the big ferris wheel, we sailed above the ground, but then
We had to be quick because Elsie felt sick and we had to find some place to take her.
I said to her lad "What made her feel bad t'was the wheel going round."
3. Elsie and me, we finished our tea, and we said goodbye to the seaside.
Back on the bus, Flo says to us, "Oh isn't it a shame to go."
Wouldn't it be grand to have cash on demand, and to live like this for always.
Oh it makes me feel ill when I think of the Mill and the wheels going round.
